DREAM IN SEASON AND HOME OPENERS

The Dream has an all-time record of 3-3 in season openers, and 4-2 in home openers. Atlanta has opened the season at home three times, winning last season and in 2009 and losing in 2011. Atlanta has won four of its last five home openers, with the only loss coming in 2011.

SHOOTING FOR SIX

Atlanta, in just its seventh season in the WNBA, is seeking its sixth consecutive playoff appearance. Atlanta and Indiana are the only two teams in the Eastern Conference to reach the playoffs in each of the past five seasons, and the Dream is the only team in the WNBA to finish with a record of at least .500 in each of the past five years. Just how rare is the Dream's success? There have been 18 different WNBA franchises since the league began play in 1997. Of those 18 franchises, Atlanta is one of just four that reached the playoffs at least five times in its first six seasons. The other three (Charlotte, Houston, New York) all were franchises that were part of the initial group of eight teams that began play in 1997. Of the 10 franchises that joined the league after 1997, only Atlanta has accomplished the feat.

DREAM FINALIZES ROSTER

The Atlanta Dream finalized its opening-night roster by waiving eight players who were invited to training camp. Those who competed for roster spots but were waived included Ashley Corral, Rebekah Gardner, Jacki Gemelos, Cassie Harberts, Khaalidah Miller, Jhasmin Player, Samantha Prahalis and Danielle Wilson.

RETURNING FIREPOWER

Although half of the Dream roster is made up of newcomers (6 of 12), most of the firepower from the 2013 team returns, thanks to the return of three starters plus a healthy Sancho Lyttle. Players who accounted for 1,915 of Atlanta's 2,614 points (73.3 percent) are back this season, while the Dream also returns players who accounted for 73.2 percent of its rebounds, 64.6 percent of its assists, 61.4 percent of its steals and 84.1 percent of its blocks.

ROOKIE CLASS

Four rookies made the 2013 roster, with two coming to the Dream through the draft and two others coming over as international players. Guard Shoni Schimmel was the Dream's top draft pick (No. 8 overall) out of Louisville, while guard Inga Orekhova from South Florida was picked in the second round (No. 18 overall). Guard Céline Dumerc, who has not yet joined the team while finishing her overseas commitment, will play in the WNBA for the first time after a distinguished career in France, while Nadia Colhado has been a teammate of Erika de Souza's on the Brazilian national team.

MORE NEW FACES

In addition to the four rookies, the Dream roster also includes two other new faces. Guard Matee Ajavon was acquired from Washington in a trade that involved guard Alex Bentley moving from Atlanta to Connecticut. The Dream also made a trade during training camp, bringing four-time All-Star Swin Cash to Atlanta from Chicago while sending Courtney Clements to the Sky. The team's also exchanged draft picks in next year's draft, with Chicago getting the Dream's second-round pick, while Atlanta gets the Sky's third-round selection.

CASHING IN ON A TITLE

The addition of Swin Cash to the Dream's roster gives the Dream a player with WNBA Championship experience. Cash won two titles while with Detroit (2003, 2006) and a third with Seattle (2010). No other Dream player has played in winning effort in a WNBA Finals game. Erika de Souza was a member of the 2002 Los Angeles Sparks title team, but did not play in the Finals. Cash joins Angel McCoughtry as Dream players who have won Olympic gold, while Tiffany Hayes joins Cash as players who have won NCAA titles.

2014 ATLANTA DREAM BASKETBALL

KEY DEPARTURES

While the Dream returns most of its production from the 2013 team, five players who ended the 2013 season with Atlanta are no longer on the roster. In addition to trades involving Alex Bentley and Courtney Clements, guard Arminie Herrington was an unrestricted free agent who signed with the Los Angeles Sparks, center Ruth Riley was a free agent who was not re-signed and forward Le'Coe Willingham was waived prior to training camp.

TEAM OF THE YEAR

In March, the Dream was named Team of the Year at the annual Atlanta Sports Awards. The Dream earned the award on the strength of a third Eastern Conference Championship and trip to the WNBA Finals in four seasons. The Dream reached the playoffs for a fifth consecutive year in 2013, and set a franchise record with a 13-4 home record. Atlanta opened the season with a 10-1 record, becoming just the sixth team in WNBA history to win at least 10 of its first 11 games

MCCOUGHTRY DEFENDS SCORING TITLES

Angel McCoughtry has won two consecutive WNBA scoring titles after averaging a league-best 21.5 points per game last season. McCoughtry aims to become just the third player in WNBA history to win at least three consecutive scoring titles, joining Cynthia Cooper (1997-99) and Diana Taurasi (2008-11). McCoughtry narrowly missed winning her first scoring title in 2011, finishing 0.04 points per game behind Taurasi. McCoughtry, whose career scoring average of 19.5 ranks third in WNBA history, also just missed winning her second straight steals title last year, finishing second to Tamika Catchings.

VETERAN FRONTCOURT

Atlanta returns two post players who have logged a lot of games in a Dream uniform. Center Erika de Souza is the only member of the team who was on the initial roster in 2008, and has played in a franchise best 161 games for the Dream. Meanwhile, Sancho Lyttle came to the Dream one year after de Souza and has played in 128 games, and ranks third in franchise history for most career minutes played (3,692).

LYTTLE EARNS INTERNATIONAL HONOR

In February, Dream forward Sancho Lyttle was named the 2013 FIBA Europe Women's Player of the Year. Lyttle earned the award based largely on her tournament MVP performance while helping Spain win the gold medal at EuroBasket Women in June of 2013. Lyttle was the top player at the EuroBasket competition, leading all players in scoring (18.4), rebounds (11.1), steals (2.9) and double-doubles (seven in nine games). In a 70-69 victory over host France in the gold-medal game, Lyttle collected 20 points, 11 boards, four steals and a pair of assists to help Spain win its first EuroBasket title in two decades.

COOPER BRINGS SHOWTIME TO THE DREAM

Two-time WNBA champion head coach Michael Cooper begins his first season as Atlanta's head coach this season. He was named head coach on Nov. 21, 2013. Cooper is one of the most successful coaches in WNBA history, ranking second in career winning percentage (.663) and sixth in career victories (167) entering the 2014 season. He is the last WNBA head coach to have led his team to back-to-back league titles, winning the 2001 and 2002 championships with the Los Angeles Sparks. He had two stints as head coach of the Sparks, amassing a record of 167-85 over eight seasons (2000-04, 2007-09), including a 25-13 (.658) playoff record. He guided the Sparks to three Western Conference titles and reached the conference finals six times..

THOMPSON, EDWARDS JOIN STAFF

The Dream completed its coaching staff with the additions of Karleen Thompson and Teresa Edwards as assistant coaches. Thompson was an assistant on Michael Cooper's staff with the Los Angeles Sparks that won WNBA titles in 2001 and 2002, and she served as interim co-head coach when Cooper left during the 2004 season to join the Denver Nuggets' staff. She was later the head coach and GM for the Houston Comets from 2007-08. Edwards, a five-time Olympian, coached with the Tulsa Shock, and was promoted from assistant to interim head coach in 2011. She also has coached with the Minnesota Lynx, but the former Georgia Bulldog is best known for her playing career. Sports Illustrated named her the No. 22 greatest female athlete - and No. 2 basketball player - of the 20th century.

TAYLOR NAMED EVP/GM

For the first time, the Dream has separated its head coach and general manager duties between two individuals. Angela Taylor was named the Dream's Executive Vice-President and General Manager on Jan. 21. She previously served as Vice-President and General Manager for the Washington Mystics for two seasons (2009-10) and Vice-President of Business Operations for the Minnesota Lynx (2006-08), and is the Owner and President of NetWorks Sports Consulting. A member of two national championship teams as an undergraduate at Stanford, Taylor coached the Cardinal as well as at Texas A&M and Arizona before spending 10 years in the WNBA League Office.

DREAM ANNOUNCES TELEVISION SCHEDULE

The Atlanta Dream renewed its television partnership with FOX Sports South and SportSouth for the 2014 WNBA season. All Dream home games at Philips Arena that are not nationally televised will be televised on FOX Sports South and/or SportSouth. Coverage also includes three road matchups: May 17 and July 12 at Indiana, and July 22 at Minnesota.

SUCCESS OVERSEAS

Sancho Lyttle helped Galatasaray enjoy its best season ever during the offseason, as the club became the first Turkish team to win the EuroLeague title, won its first Turkish League championship in 14 years and won the Turkish Cup as well. Galatasaray defeated Angel McCoughtry's Fenerbahce squad in the finals of all three. In addition, Céline Dumerc currently has her team - Tango Bourges Basket - in the French League finals, and in Brazil, Sport Recife, which included Erika de Souza, Tiffany Hayes and Nadia Colhado, reached the finals before falling. Other Dream players to play overseas were Matee Ajavon (Mersin/Turkey) and Aneika Henry (Antakya/Turkey).

TAKE THE SHOW ON THE ROAD

The Atlanta Dream continues its "Take the Show on the Road" program for the 2014 season, hosting open practices at high schools across the state. The program serves as a fundraiser for the school's programs. This year's locations include: Benjamin Baneker High School in College Park on May 10; Salem High School in Conyers on June 10; Dutchtown High School in Hampton on June 25; and Samson's Community and Youth Development Foundation in Lithonia on July 10.

MICHAEL COOPER

HEAD COACH

Career Regular Season Record in WNBA:	167-85
Career Postseason Record in WNBA:	25-13
Career Regular Season Record in Atlanta:	0-0

Former NBA player and WNBA champion coach Michael Cooper is in his first season as Head Coach of the Atlanta Dream. Cooper was a five-time NBA Champion as a player with the Los Angeles Lakers, and led the Los Angeles Sparks to two WNBA titles as the team's head coach.

Cooper is one of the most successful coaches in WNBA history, ranking second in career winning percentage (.663) and sixth in career victories (167) entering the 2014 season. He is the last WNBA head coach to have led his team to back-to-back league titles, winning the 2001 and 2002 championships in Los Angeles.

Cooper comes to the Dream after spending the past four seasons (2009-13) as the head coach of the women's basketball team at the University of Southern California, compiling a record of 72-57 (.558). Prior to that, he had two stints as head coach of the Sparks, amassing a record of 167-85 (.663) over eight seasons (2000-04, 2007-09), including a 25-13 (.658) play-off record. He guided the Sparks to three Western Conference titles and reached the conference finals six times.

After one season as an assistant coach for the Sparks, Cooper took over as head coach in 2000 and in his first season, led the team to a 28-4 record while being named the WNBA Coach of the Year. He then guided the team to WNBA Championships in 2001 and 2002, and reached the WNBA Finals again in 2003 before losing to Detroit. His second stint with the Sparks included two more trips to the Western Conference Finals in 2008 and 2009.

Cooper's association with Los Angeles started when he spent his entire 12-year (1979-90) NBA career with the Lakers, helping the "Showtime" Lakers to five NBA titles (1980-82-85-87-88). Known for his defensive prowess, he was named to the NBA All-Defensive Team eight times – including five first team selections – and was the league's Defensive Player of the Year in 1987.

Cooper finished his career ranked in the Lakers' top 10 in games played (873), minutes played (23,635), 3-point field goals (428), steals (1,033), blocked shots (523), assists (3,666), defensive rebounds (2,028) and free throw percentage (.833). He also spent one season playing professionally in Italy in 1991 with Pallacanestro Virtus Roma.

Following his playing career, Cooper served as a special assistant to Lakers general manager Jerry West for three years before joining the Lakers' coaching staff for four seasons (1994-97).

Cooper ended his first stint with the Sparks to return to the NBA in 2005 as an assistant with the Denver Nuggets, and spent part of that season serving as interim head coach. He then became the head coach of the NBA Development League's Albuquerque Thunderbirds for two seasons (2005-07), winning the NBA D-League Championship in 2006 and posting a 50-48 (.510) regular-season record.

Cooper attended Pasadena (Calif.) High and then Pasadena City College before starring at New Mexico, where he made the All-Western Athletic Conference first team as a senior in 1978. He was selected to the Lobo Hall of Honor in 1992.

Cooper has also been recognized for his community efforts off the court. During the 1985-86 season, Cooper, along with New York's Rory Sparrow, was selected by the Pro Basketball Writer's Association as the recipient of the J. Walter Kennedy Citizenship Award. Cooper was also honored with the Commitment to Excellence Award during the 2007 Los Angeles Sports Fans Choice Awards.
